

NATIVE STREAM FAUNA IN HAWAI'I

FISH, CRUSTACEANS, & MOLLUSCS

'O'opu akupa
Eleotris sandwicensis

Photo: Cory Yap

Thick lips, brownish, projecting lower jaw, broad & depressed head, pelvic fins not fused

'O'opu alamo'o
Lentipes concolor

male

Photo: Cory Yap

Little to no scales, purple-brownish; posterior half of breeding males are bright red female

Photo: Cory Yap

'O'opu nopili
Sicyopterus stimpsoni

Photo: Cory Yap

Covered with scales, black bands across back, dark olive-green, small eyes, blunt head

'O'opu naniha
Stenogobius hawaiiensis

Photo: Cory Yap

Black blotch below eye & extending on cheek

Hapawai
Neritina vespertina

Photo: Cory Yap

Smooth, gray, light purple, or olive-brown, thin-walled shell, wing-like projections

'O'opu nākea
Awaous stamineus

Photo: Cory Yap

Mouth pointing somewhat down, dark olive-brown; white underside, dark stripes on fins, broad head

Hīhīwai
Neritina granosa

Photo: Cory Yap

Bumpy, black; orange shell bottom

'Ō'pae 'oeha'a
Macrobrachium grandimanus

Photo: Cory Yap

Striped pincers; one larger than the other, light to dark brown

'Ō'pae kala'ole
Atyoida bisulcata

Photo: Cory Yap

Golden-brown; dark green to black

